

Printing Instructions

I recommend using "Cover Stock" or lightweight cardstock paper {67 lb}, especially since this needs to be printed double-sided.

If you have a Double-Sided Printer: 1. Select: Print Range/From > pages 2 to 5 2. Select: Layout > Two-Sided > "Short-Edge Binding" {This will ensure all the pages are right side up!} 3. Print!

Otherwise: Print pages 2 & 4, then print pages 3 & 5 on reverse side -OR- print each page one at a time (this booklet will not "make sense" unless it is printed on both sides and folded up.)

Abram & Lot Separate

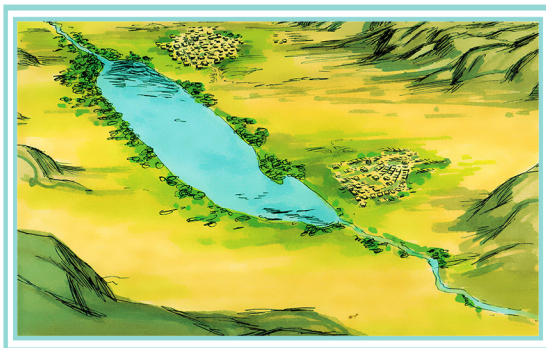

STORY

Abram and his nephew Lot, their families, flocks and herds settled in Bethel in Canaan, living alongside the local Canaanite tribes. Abram had become very wealthy in livestock plus silver and gold. Lot also had flocks, herds and tents, but there was not enough pasture or water for both Abram's and Lot's animals to graze

Fights began to arise between the herdsmen looking after Abram's and Lot's animals. So Abram said to Lot, 'Let's not have any more quarrelling between our herders. The whole land is before us. Let's part and go our separate ways. If you choose to go to the left, I'll go to the right; if you go to the right, I'll go to the left.'

Lot saw that the plain of Jordan was well watered with good pasture lands. However, the people living in this area were very disobedient. Two cities in particular, Sodom and Gomorrah, were full of wickedness.

REVIEW & DISCUSS

Why did Abram and Lot have to separate?

What was GOOD and what was BAD about the land that Lot chose?

MEMORY VERSE

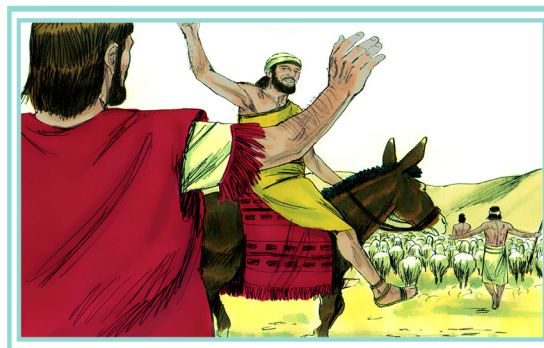

"All the land that you see
I will give to you and your offspring forever."

Genesis 13:15

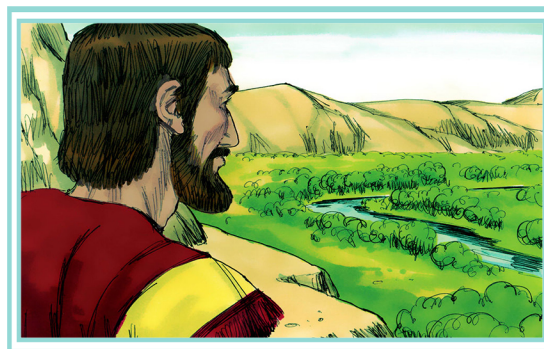

A large rectangular box with a decorative scalloped border, containing several horizontal lines for writing. The lines are arranged in pairs, with a dashed midline between each solid line, typical of primary writing paper.

Lot Decides

But Lot chose this rich, fertile area as the best place for his family to live. So Lot, his family and his flocks and herds moved off east to live in the plain of Jordan. They pitched their tents near the city of Sodom.

God's Promise

When Lot had gone, the Lord spoke to Abram: 'Look all around you. All the land you see is for you and your offspring forever. 'I will make your offspring like the dust, impossible to count. Go and walk through the land for I am giving it to you.'

Abram moved west of where Lot had settled in an area called Hebron. He pitched his tent near some large trees. Then he built an altar to God to worship the Lord in this new place he and his family were living.
